

Mona. A Manifesto

Athens is my canvas, my stage, my amusement park; the lover I come back to for more.

We share the same curiosity, looking inward to see outward, revealing layers of color, texture, of raw truth.

Urban and country, modern and primal, merged into one form of elegant complexity. A climate of chaos wrapped in rocker chic – loyal to the artist in values, visions and aesthetics.

Staying up all night to the rhythm of fresh beats to salute the sun each morning. Expressing at full volume, greatness in passion. Eating what excites and drinking from the top. Discovering hidden gardens, old terrazzo floors, layers of history awaiting a revival – to be touched by creative madness and renewed by sensual wonders.

I choose to live life as an out-of-body experience; as a curated discovery of unexplored sensations and uncharted spaces.

I'm Mona; a movement; a homage to the art of living. Sanctuary for the wild at heart.

My force is contagious, and my song will soon be on your lips.

Come, take my hand, and jump in.
